Little Fellows Are All the Go In Australia, Says Snowy, the Promoter.

Snows Baker, the Australian fight promoter, writes that the bantumweights are going big in Kangaroo

The hantles are all the go in Austrulia at present," says Baker. They are drawing big houses, and the fight loving public has been taking more Interest in the little fellows than ever

During the past few weeks a number of elimination contents among some of the coming bantams have been held in Sydney and Melbourne. At each of these bunts crowds of from 5000 to 7000 have been furning out.

Among the badtams who are holding places in the line in Australia are Jank Januere, the champion, and Vince Blackburn, Harry Holmes, and Meguire, Eddie Clifford, Chick Lloyd and Albert Locks.

Carrigan Alone Got More. This is said to be the largest aum ever paid to a catcher for a reason's work. It's true that William Carrinas received more while with the Red Sox, but he had the managerial duties to perform and the larger part of his pay came from this source.

Schalk took the plum from Jimmy Archer, of the Cubs, who last year was the best paid catcher in the name. His sulary was $7500.

The heavy increase accounts for the sood will and optimism displayed by Schalk as he left Chicago following the skinding of his contract. Before boarding the train he declared that he was entirely satisfied with the fairness of the south side magnate and that it was a pleasure to do business with him.

Kilbane sees visions of a 15 round decision affair with Welsh for the lightweight title if he can hurdle Mitchell this time it promises to be one grand picnic.

Mitchell, unless he yields to the lure of the movies, will have two more fights of consequence within the next few weeks. One is a 20 round affair with Joe Rivers at New Orleans on February 16 and the other is a bout with Benny Leonard in New York. But the movies may win. My Lads, Here's a Tear Jerker for Your Life. "JUST ONE MORE." Y' might laugh like but it's truth I tell-That just one drink got me, some kids signabiling over an old tire that some automobilist had thrown away I said. "Look at these kids fighting over that old piece of rubber." He answered

And changed me from a prosp'rous man To this wretched thing you see.

Yes, it's true, my friends, that just one drink Has dragged me down and down, Till now I've lost all happiness And everything I owned.

"How odd," you'll say, "that just one drink Could put a man so low, it must be some strange kind of drink. Of which none of us know. Right there you're wrong, and let me say, it's ten to none you drink that drink That caused me my downfall. s matter if it's rum you drink, Or wine, mixed drinks, or gin As I said, it's ten to none you take

That if you drink at all,

The drink that cashed me in. You look surprised! But take a tip And cut it out before It gets you like it gets them all-its name is "Just One More."
